

Citing Electronic Resources in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science

Basic Rules:

1. Cite the item as if it were in print. Include author (sometimes an organization), title(s) (web page, article, section or chapter title), and date of publication (last updated or article publication date).
2. Include the source of the electronic version -- vendor, database, electronic journal and/or web site. This will include a web address so that the reader could get to the site and locate the resource.
3. Add the date when you retrieved the item – electronic resources can and DO change.
4. Most college of engineering faculty prefers use of the full article and journal titles.

Examples

Based on the IEEE style guide but include full article title as well as full source titles rather than the standardized abbreviated journal title. More details can be found at: http://www.ieee.org/portal/cms\_docs\_iportals/iportals/publications/authors/transjnl/stylemanual.pdf

Online Book from the publisher

- [1] S. Boer. (2002). Electricity Requirements for a digital society. [Online]. Available: <http://www.questia.com/read/103989900?title>. 2008, Nov. 12

Full text article direct from a publisher

- [2] F. Medjoub. (2007, Dec.). Status of the Emerging InAlN/GaN Power HEMT Technology. The Open Electrical and Electronic Engineering Journal. [Online] 2008, 2, pp.1-7. Available: www.bentham.org/open/toeej/openaccess2.htm. 2007, Dec. 13

Conference Paper available on the web:

- [1] Process Software Corp., MA. Intranets: Internet technologies deployed behind the firewall for corporate productivity. Presented at INET'96 Annual Meeting [Online]. Available: <http://www.process.com/Intranets/wp2.htm>

Reference Style

Use superscripts to identify the quotation. Collect the references cited in a numbered list at the end of the paper. Numbers are given in brackets [ ] and treated like footnote numbers.

University of Arkansas Libraries

RefWorks Citation Manager

Download the Write-n-Cite plugin